INFORMATION REGARDING THE TREATMENT OF PERSONAL DATA pursuant to Articles 13-14 of the EU Regulation 2016/679

Dear Associate/Customer,

REGISTRO ABARTH wishes to inform you of your rights under the provisions of the EU Reg. 2016/679 (European regulation on the protection of personal data) relating to the protection of persons and other entities, with respect to the use of your personal data.

THE DATA HOLDER

In accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679, your data will be held by REGISTRO FIAT ITALIANO, referred to hereafter as the Data Holder.

PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS FOR THE PROCESSING OF PERSONAL DATA

The Data Holder will make use of personal data provided by you (name, surname, title, address, VAT No., telephone number, email address, bank details) solely for the purpose of carrying out contractual obligations and meeting specific requests from you, as well as fulfilling any legal and regulatory obligations. The main aims of our data processing are:

- Preparation of the records of the Association
- Preparation of contracts for collaboration and/or supplies
- To comply with the legal book-keeping requirements
- More in general, to meet all obligations foreseen by the law, regulations and European norms.

DATA TREATMENT METHODS

Your personal data will be entered in our database and available only to authorized personnel and those specifically nominated by the Data Holder who will ensure that all data processing is in conformity with the law. The processing of your data may take place in both manually and electronically. These operations will be undertaken in such a way as to ensure logical and physical security, as well as the privacy of your personal data.

HOW WILL YOUR DATA BE STORED AND FOR HOW LONG?

Your personal data will be stored in specific archives, both physical and electronic, and will be protected and accessible only to authorized personnel, with full respect of the security norms in order to prevent the loss of data, illegal or incorrect use, or unauthorized access. Your personal data will be stored on the premises of the Data Holder who will use your data only for the time necessary to fulfill the above purposes and, in any case, no longer than 10 years after the cessation of contractual relations with you, as foreseen by the law.

PROVISION OF PERSONAL DATA AND CONSEQUENCES IN THE CASE OF REFUSAL

You are obliged to provide us with your personal data. Failure to do so, or the provision of erroneous data, will make it impossible for us to provide our services and fulfil our legal obligations.

COMMUNICATION AND TRANSFER OF DATA

Your data may be made available:

- To our collaborators and employees, as required by their specific responsibilities;
- To persons or juridical entities, public or private, when this is necessary for the execution of our activities, in the ways and with the purposes indicated above.
- To those for whom right of access to such data is recognized by the law and regulatory norms.

Your data will not be made available or transferred to third countries or international organizations and will not be used for profiling as the Data Holder does not undertake activities which involve automatic decision-making processes.

YOUR RIGHTS

In compliance with articles 15 and 16 of EU Reg. 2016/679, you have the right to obtain from the Data Holder confirmation as to whether your data is being used or not, and to obtain access to the data in our possession as well as the following information:

- The purpose for which your data is used;
- The categories of data involved;
- The recipients, or category of recipients, to whom the data has been or will be made available, in particular if this involves entities in third countries or international organizations;
- The period of time for which your personal data will be stored or, if this is not possible, the criteria applied to determine this period;
- The existence of your right to request the Data Holder to rectify or erase your personal data, as well as to limit the processing of your personal data or refuse consent;
- The right to lodge a complaint with the relevant supervisory authority;
- The use of automated decision-making processes, including profiling and, in certain cases, information on the logic involved as well as the importance and foreseen consequences of such data treatment for yourself.

In accordance with Article 17 of EU Reg. 2016/679, you have the right to require the Data Holder to erase the personal data being held, and the “right to be forgotten”, without unjustified delay, for any of the following reasons:

- Your personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which it was collected;
- You withdraw your consent, on the basis of Article 6, paragraph 1, letter a), or article 9, paragraph 2, letter a), and if there is no legal justification for the processing of your data;
- You withdraw consent for the processing of your data under Article 21, paragraph 1, and there is no legal basis for its use, or if you refuse the use of your data under Article 21, paragraph 2;
- Your personal data has been used illegally;
- Your personal data must be erased in order to comply with a legal requirement foreseen by the European Union or member state to which the Data Holder is subject;
- The personal data has been obtained in relation to the offer of information society services as specified in Article 8, paragraph 1 of Reg. EU 2016/679.
- In relation to Article 18 of Reg. EU 2016/679, you have the right to require the Data Holder to restrict the processing of your data when the following cases apply:
- You claim that the personal data in possession of the Data Holder is incorrect, for the time necessary for the Data Holder to check the accuracy of the data;

- The data processing is illegal and, although you do not require the data to be erased, you request that its use is restricted;
- Although the Data Holder no longer needs your personal data, it is required by you for the verification, exercise or defense in a court of law;
- You have refused consent to the processing of your data under Article 21, paragraph 1 of Reg. EU 2016/679, while awaiting verification of legitimate reasons on the part of the Data Holder for the processing of your data.

Under Article 19 of Reg. EU 2016/679, you have the right to receive from the Data Holder, without impediment, and in a structured and easily readable format, any personal data in our possession and to transfer this data to another Data Holder without impediment.

WITHDRAWAL OF CONSENT TO USE OF DATA

Your right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data can be exercised by sending a signed letter by registered post to REGISTRO ABARTH, at the following address: via Cesare Battisti 2, 10123-Torino (TO), Italy, accompanied by a photocopy of an accepted ID document, stating the following: “I withdraw my consent to the processing of my personal data.” After receipt, your personal data will be removed from our archives as soon as possible. If you wish to have further information on the treatment of your personal data, or to exercise the rights set out above, please write by registered post to REGISTRO ABARTH, at the following address: via Cesare Battisti 2, 10123-Torino (TO), Italy.

Before providing you with any information, or modifying our data records, we shall require evidence of your identity and answers to some questions. A response will be given as soon as possible.
